The Boston Conservatory of Music is a member of the National Association of Schools of Music. The requirements for entrance and for graduation as set forth in this catalogue are in accordance with the published regulations of the National Association of Schools of Music.

HISTORY

THE BOSTON CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC was founded in 1867 by the eminent musician, Julius Eichberg, a graduate of the Conservatory of Brussels with first prizes in violin and composition. After a number of years at the Geneva Conservatory, he came to Boston in 1859 to become director of the Museum Concerts. Under his leadership, the Conservatory gained national standing. In 1893, Herman P. Chelius, well known pianist and organist, succeeded Mr. Eichberg as director. The Conservatory was first incorporated under the laws of Massachusetts in 1896, and there followed an unsettled period until 1920 when Agide Jacchia became director. Mr. Jacchia's wide experience proved of inestimable value in re-establishing the prestige of the school. He continued as director until his death in 1932, and was succeeded by Albert Alphin. Mr. Alphin, a former pupil and teacher at the Conservatory, reorganized the school as a non-profit-making institution.

LOCATION

The school acquired its first permanent building on the Fenway in 1936. Three more buildings were added for school and dormitory purposes between the years 1938 and 1942. In the spring of 1949, the construction of a new building provided additional classroom space and unexcelled studios and facilities for the drama and dance departments. The Concert Room, the Recital Hall, each seating approximately 135, and the Auditorium which seats over 500, afford ample opportunity for recitals, concerts, operas, dance and dramatic programs. The Conservatory buildings, located on the Fenway, face one of Boston's most beautiful parks and, while sufficiently removed from the noise of the business district, are easily accessible by all means of transportation. Within easy walking distance are Symphony Hall, Jordan Hall and the Boston Museum of Fine Arts. Churches of all denominations and the Boston Public Library are also in the vicinity. In Boston, the student finds a wealth of cultural opportunities embodied in the Boston Symphony Orchestra, chamber music concerts, opera performances, recitals by distinguished visiting artists, many dance recitals and stage plays as well as innumerable opportunities in allied fields.

POLICIES

The faculty of the Boston Conservatory comprises more than fifty experienced musicians and teachers. Limited enrollment assures the student of small class groups and personal contact with instructors. Authority to grant the degree bachelor of music was obtained in 1938, and the degree bachelor of fine arts in 1951. Graduate programs leading to the degree of master of music and master of music education were approved by the Massachusetts Board of Collegiate Authority in 1957. The Conservatory is approved for the training of non-quota foreign students and for veterans.

General Information

PURPOSE

It is the purpose of the Boston Conservatory of Music to provide a thorough education in the three allied arts: music, drama and dance. In pursuance of this purpose each course leading to graduation is designed to give serious students the training that will enable them to take their place in the professional world as skilled performers and as capable and trustworthy teachers. Graduates and former students who are now successfully employed give evidence of the fulfillment of this aim. To a continued realization of this purpose the faculty of the Boston Conservatory of Music is respectfully dedicated.

ADMISSION

BACHELOR OF MUSIC DEGREE and CERTIFICATE COURSES

Application for admission to the degree or certificate course must be made on forms obtained from the Conservatory and should be filed as early as possible before the date of intended entrance.

General Requirements: For admission to the degree course the applicant must have graduated from a high school or similar institution and must have completed a course which includes a minimum of fifteen units as follows:

English (representing 4 years' study)	3
Foreign Language	2
Mathematics	1
History or Civics	1
Science	1
*Electives	7
	15

*Of the electives 4 units should be in the following fields: Foreign Languages, Mathematics, Social Studies, Fine Arts, Science. The remaining 3 units may be free electives. Any deficiency in the above requirements must be made up during the first year of study.

Certificate Course: There are no specific academic requirements for admission to the certificate course, but a high school education or its equivalent is recommended.

Musical Requirements: An applicant for admission to the degree or certificate course with major in applied music must show by examination (voice or instrument) an ability to perform compositions equivalent to the more advanced listed in the respective Preparatory course. Dance and Drama: See pages 38 and 40 for general admission requirements to the dance and drama courses.

Advanced Standing: Students desiring to transfer from accredited institutions should have a transcript of record and contemporary catalogs of the schools previously attended sent to the Conservatory in advance of the opening season. An evaluation of the credits in theoretical and academic subjects will be made and advanced standing determined accordingly. Advanced standing in applied music (voice or instrument) can be obtained by examination upon entrance. Students who have not studied in an accredited school may be admitted to advanced standing by passing special comprehensive examinations in their subjects. In no case will such examination reduce the number of credits that must be earned for the degree.

Special Students: A Special Student, not being an aspirant for the degree, or certificate, may enter at any time and elect any subject for which he is qualified, the minimum enrollment being for a term of ten weekly private lessons or one semester of class instruction. A Special Student may transfer to the degree, or certificate course at any time providing he meets the academic and all other requirements; in effecting such a transfer, credit will be given for any subjects required in his course which have been completed previously in the Conservatory.

THE SEMESTER HOUR

The unit of credit is the semester hour. In general a semester hour is the amount of credit given for one hour of prepared class work per week for one semester. A semester hour in applied music (voice or instrument) is granted for three hours practice per week during one semester, plus the necessary individual or class instruction. In some subjects (Solfege, Ensemble, Chorus, Orchestra, etc.) in which the work is of a laboratory nature the amount of credit may vary from the number of hours required.

DEGREE COURSES

Students may major in any one of the following subjects leading to the baccalaureate degree: Voice, Organ, Piano, Harpsichord, Violin, Viola, Violoncello, Contrabass, Harp, Woodwind and Brass instruments, Composition, Music Education, Drama, Dance.

The degree bachelor of music is conferred upon music majors who have completed the required four-year course with a minimum of 120 semester hours credit.

The degree bachelor of fine arts is conferred upon drama or dance majors who have completed the required four-year course with a minimum of 120 semester hours credit.

Ninety percent of the required 120 semester hours must be for work which merits a grade of C or higher. Thirty semester hours must be earned in resident study.

CERTIFICATE COURSES

The Certificate is awarded to music majors who have completed the required three-year course with a minimum of 85 semester hours credit. Twenty eight semester hours must be earned in resident study.

EXAMINATIONS

All students pursuing courses leading to graduation are required to take examinations given at the end of each semester. Preparatory and Special Students must take examinations if they wish an official record kept of work completed. Examinations in applied music are given during the last week of each semester by a jury composed of the director and members of the faculty. Students whose records are unsatisfactory will not be admitted to the examinations. The method of marking is as follows: A, excellent; B, good; C, fair; D, passing; E, failure; X, absent from examination; W, withdrew from course. To graduate with honors a student must maintain an average grade of B or better throughout his course.

SPECIAL AWARDS

The Arthur B. Whitney medal is awarded annually to the regular course student who maintains the highest average grades for the school year. A student must be carrying a course equivalent to fifteen hours each semester in order to be eligible for this award.

The Conservatory Silver Medal is awarded upon graduation to candidates for the degree who have maintained honor grades throughout their courses.

PRACTICE ACCOMMODATIONS

Practice rooms are available to all resident students of the Conservatory at moderate fees. Privileges will be extended to non-resident students for practice of subjects studied at the Conservatory when schedules and accommodations permit. The Conservatory rates range from $4 to $10 per month, depending upon the number of daily hours and the instrument. Organ practice rates are 25, 40 and 50 cents per hour.

LIBRARY

The Library contains a carefully chosen selection of books on music, drama and dance, and a representative collection of orchestra scores, operas, chamber music and standard instrumental and vocal literature. It also includes the necessary reference books for the daily use of students in music education and academic subjects. The record library contains a wide variety of representative recordings. All full-time students of the Conservatory are accorded the privilege of borrowing books from the Boston Public Library, which contains one of the largest musical reference libraries in the country.

EVENING INSTRUCTION

The Conservatory is open evenings for the convenience and benefit of those who are unable to attend during the day. Instruction in all subjects is available with regular faculty members. Evening students are accorded the privileges of examinations, participation in recitals, and other school activities.

SUMMER INSTRUCTION

Instruction in various subjects offered at the Conservatory is available throughout the summer. Credit towards degree, or certificate requirements may be obtained by summer study. Summer work, when pursued in addition to the regular school year course, offers to students the opportunity of continuing their studies uninterruptedly and thereby accelerating the completion of their courses.

SCHOLARSHIPS

The following scholarships afford financial assistance for a limited number of students who show evidence of exceptional ability and are unable to pay the costs of tuition. Scholarships awarded to students are continued to the end of their courses, provided that they are availing themselves to the full measure of their advantage. The amount of each award is determined by the financial status of the student.

The Sevcik Scholarship. A fund established for the aid of one or more deserving violin students by the distinguished violin pedagogue, Professor Otakar Sevcik, during his visit to America (1931-32) as guest teacher.

Blanche B. Parker Fund. The income of a bequest of twenty-five hundred dollars under the will of the late Blanche B. Parker to be used for the assistance of one or more women students of voice.

Alumni Association Scholarship. A special fund established by the Alumni Association to aid needy students.

Bertha T. Otis Scholarship. The income from a fund of five hundred dollars established by the late Bertha T. Otis.

Faculty Scholarships. Scholarships sponsored by faculty members are available to students of composition, voice, organ, pianoforte, orchestral instruments, dance and drama.

Conservatory Scholarship Fund. A fund made possible by individual contributions and by proceeds from various benefit recitals and activities.

Student Government Scholarship: A fund established by the Student Government Organization of The Conservatory to aid deserving students.

RECITALS, CONCERTS

Student Recitals: Throughout the school year public recitals are given by advanced students and those performing most commendably in the recital classes.

Faculty Recitals: All faculty recitals given during the year are open to students without charge and to the public upon invitation.

Concerts: A number of concerts by the Conservatory orchestra, chorus, ensembles, and other groups is given during the school year. Members of the faculty, advanced students, and guest artists frequently appear on these programs.

RESIDENCE

The Conservatory maintains dormitories for women near the school buildings and overlooking the beautiful Fens. The rooms are furnished with studio couch beds, chiffoniers or bureaus, writing desks, chairs and lamps. Occupants are required to furnish blankets; couch cover and window draperies if desired. Linen and towels are provided by the dormitory and laundered weekly for a service charge of $10 per semester.

It is expected that students will conduct themselves properly at all times and adhere to the general house regulations. Freedom, consistent with the best interests of the school and the students themselves, is extended to all. Women students who are not living at home are required to live in the dormitories or at other residences approved by the school.

Room reservation should be made as soon as the student is notified that her application has been accepted. A deposit of twenty-five dollars is required to confirm the reservation. A reservation shall be considered as binding for the entire school year. A student may be released from this agreement only in the event of an emergency which, in the judgment of the Conservatory management, necessitates her withdrawal from the school.

Residence charges are payable by the semester in advance and will be subject to no deductions for vacations or other absences. Rates include room, weekly laundry of bed linen and towels, and three meals daily, Monday through Saturday. There are a number of attractive restaurants in the immediate vicinity of the dormitories where students may obtain meals on Sunday at their leisure.

Single room	$133, $150 a semester
Double room	$133, $150 a semester
Triple Room	$133 a semester
Laundry service charge	$10 a semester
Meals	$228 a semester

Men students will be given assistance, when possible, in locating suitable rooms in approved private homes near the Conservatory.

The Graduate School

THE BOSTON CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC offers courses leading to the Master of Music degree in the fields of Applied Music (instrumental and vocal), Composition and Music Education. The Graduate School Program is open to those who hold the Bachelor of Music degree or other equivalent baccalaureate degree with a major in music from a school of recognized standing. Records of undergraduate studies presented for entrance must represent work equivalent in quality and content to that prescribed for similar degrees at the Boston Conservatory.

REQUIREMENTS: The minimum requirement for the master's degree is the completion of thirty-two semester hours of a prescribed course. A grade of B or better must be obtained in the major field and an average of B in the remaining subjects of the course. No applicant can be assured that he may fulfill the requirements in one academic year, as much depends upon the undergraduate preparation, deficiences (if any) to be removed and the ability of the individual student. In some instances it may take a student up to two academic years to complete the work.

Each candidate for the degree with a major in applied music will be required to give a full length public recital. The program for this recital must be performed before the Graduate Committee for approval before the date of the public performance will be announced.

A candidate for the degree with a major in Composition or Music Education is required to prepare a thesis. The thesis for a composition major will be one of the following:

(a) An original composition scored for full orchestra and requiring not less than fifteen minutes in performance (this composition may be for chorus, solo voice or an instrument with orchestral accompaniment.)

(b) An original composition for chamber orchestra requiring not less than fifteen minutes in performance.

(c) An original orchestral composition scored for full orchestra requiring not less than ten minutes in performance, and a shorter work for chorus or an instrumental combination requiring not less than five minutes in performance.

A bound score and complete set of parts of the composition(s) must be presented to the Conservatory Library at least two weeks before the date of graduation.

The Music Education major must have the subject of his thesis approved by the Graduate Committee before the completion of ten semester hours of graduate study. Preparation of the thesis will be under the guidance of a faculty advisor. A complete typewritten copy of the thesis must be submitted for correction and approval at least four weeks prior to the date of intended graduation. After approval, two copies must be typed, bound and presented to the Conservatory Library.

ADMISSION: An applicant to the Graduate School must comply with the following:

(a) File an applicatiion, on a form provided by the Conservatory, with the Chairman of the Graduate Committee at least two months prior to the time of intended matriculation. The application must be accompanied by a fee of $25.

(b) Submit a transcript(s) of all work completed for the undergraduate degree.

During the first week of the scholastic year each applicant will be interviewed and given auditions by members of the Graduate Committee and may be required to take written examinations in certain subjects. Following the auditions and examinations, the applicant will be advised as to the evaluation of his undergraduate credits. Students who have deficiences for admission will be given provisional graduate standing until such time as the undergraduate deficiencies have been removed. Such deficiencies must be removed at least one semester before the completion of the graduate degree program.

All graduate students will be required to participate in either the chorus or orchestra rehearsals and performances.

*ELECTIVES in Theory, Music History, Composition, Music Education, etc., must be chosen from subjects numbered 101 and above. They must, however, be selected in accordance with the needs of the individual student in his field of specialization and with the advice and consent of the Graduate committee. An applied music elective must be of Junior level or higher in order to obtain credit.

Description of Subjects

THEORY and SOLFEGE

Theory and Solfege 1-2. Review of the basic fundamentals of music; notation, clefs, scales, tonality, intervals, chords, ornamentation, terminology. Rhythmical articulation and sight singing in the G, F, and C (alto and tenor) clefs. Rhythmic, melodic and harmonic dictation.

Three hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

Theory and Solfege 3-4. Advanced studies in rhythmical reading and sight singing with the seven clef positions; transposition. Dictation in extended melodic line and in two, three, and four parts.

Three hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

Solfege 105-106. An advanced course primarily for instrumental and composition majors. Sight singing in all clefs; transposition; melodic and harmonic dictation; practice in piano reduction of orchestral scores. Prerequisite: Theory and Solfege 3-4 or equivalent.

Credit, 2 hours each semester.

HARMONY

Harmony 1-2. Preliminary definitions; triads of the major and minor diatonic scales and their inversions; chord progressions with emphasis on good voice leading; seventh and ninth chords and their inversions; harmonization of given basses and melodies; modulation to related keys. Keyboard harmony includes cadence formulas in all keys and simple melody harmonization.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

Harmony 3-4. Chromatically altered chords; suspension and other non-harmonic tones; modulation to remote keys; exercises in vocal and instrumental styles; the writing of accompaniments in free style; analysis of Bach chorales and other literature.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

FORM and ANALYSIS

Form and Analysis 1-2. Harmonic principles underlying chord structures and harmonic rhythm in relationship to form and content; non-harmonic and contrapuntal devices. The principal works discussed are the Preludes for the Well-Tempered Clavier by Bach, the Preludes for piano by Chopin and works by Wagner, Faure and Hindemith. In the second semester representative scores from the seventeenth through the twentieth centuries are compared and contrasted to illustrate various approaches to form, texture, orchestration and extra-musical considerations.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

COUNTERPOINT

Counterpoint 1-2. A course in sixteenth century counterpoint as exemplified by the works of Palestrina. Technical exercises in the five species and creative work in the style of the period.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

Counterpoint 3-4. Eighteenth century counterpoint; two, three and four parts in all species; florid counterpoint; imitation; text setting. Analysis of works by Bach and Mozart.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

Counterpoint 5-6. Double counterpoint; canon at all degrees, retrograde and inversion; the invention; fugal exposition. Analysis of representative works.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

Counterpoint 107-108. Canon and Fugue. An advanced course given only by private instruction.

Credit granted in accordance with work completed.

INSTRUMENTATION

Instrumentation 1-2. A study of the nature of the various orchestral instruments, singly and in combination; practice in making orchestral and band arrangements suitable for public school music work.

One hour weekly; credit, one hour each semester.

Instrumentation 3-4. Scoring for full orchestra and/or band, and for various instrumental combinations. Classes are limited to four students.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

Instrumentation 105-106. A continuation of instrumentation 3-4, with emphasis on orchestration for the symphony orchestra. Analysis of the technics employed by composers of the 18th, 19th and 20th centuries.

This course is given only by private instruction and credit is granted in accordance with the work completed.

COMPOSITION

Composition 1-2. Composition in smaller forms of pianoforte and instrumental combinations. Composition for voice and chorus with particular attention to the setting of texts and idiomatic vocal and choral practices. Emphasis is made on performance practicability and students have the opportunity of hearing their works performed in class or in informal concerts.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

Composition 3-4. Primarily instrumental. Sonatas for solo instrument and piano or chamber combinations. Special attention is given to the mastery of technique.

Two private lessons weekly; credit, four hours each semester.

Composition 5-6. Intensive study in the larger forms: Concerto, sonata, symphony, and string quartet. Analysis of representative works in these forms.

Two private lessons weekly; credit, five hours each semester.

Minimum requirements for the bachelor's degree:

(1) not less than five works in smaller forms—piano pieces, songs or solos for orchestral instruments;

(2) a motet or large anthem for chorus with or without solos;

(3) a composition in fugal form for string quartet, woodwind or brass ensemble;

(4) an example of sonata-form for pianoforte or for an ensemble combination;

(5) an orchestral work of not less than fifteen minutes in duration.

Composition 107-108. An advanced course with concentration in the larger forms.

Private instruction. Credit granted in accordance with work completed.

MUSIC HISTORY and LITERATURE

Music History 1-2. This course, run in close conjunction with Fine Arts, gives the student a cultural and historical background of styles from primitive through modern. A selected number of representative musical examples is studied in detail. Regular listening periods and written assignments supplement the class work.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

Dance Department

JAN VEEN, Director

LOUISA PHILIPS — ADELE HOOPER HUGO
KATRINE HOOPER — RUTH SANDHOLM

Realizing the importance of dance in its curriculum the Boston Conservatory of Music invited JAN VEEN, artist, educator, choreographer, to create a dance department with a dance major of collegiate grade where dance will have the proper relation to music and be correlated with the necessary academic courses. The professional course is designed to train students to take their place as highly skilled dancers, and to develop efficient and trustworthy teachers of dance and physical education. The dance major is comprised of subjects which run through the entire period of training and the material becomes progressively far-reaching as the faculties of the student expand. A student may elect to major in dance and minor in drama if so desired (see course outlines elsewhere in catalogue).

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS: (a) Graduation from high school with a minimum of 15 units as prescribed for the degree course (page 12). (b) a written statement from a physician certifying that the applicant's general health and physical stamina are equal to the demands of serious dance training.

Dance Subjects

DANCE CERTIFICATE COURSE

The Certificate is awarded to students who have completed the first three years of the degree course as outlined minus the academics. Students may be admitted to this course without having graduated from high school.

AMATEUR CLASSES

The department also conducts amateur classes for adults, young people and children designed to give pleasure, health and recreation. The work includes foundation technique, relaxation, correctives for posture and breathing, resilience, weight distribution, dance technique. With children and young people additional emphasis is placed on poise, the rudiments of the classic ballet, dramatic expression and creative studies. Amateur students may enter any professional class for which they are qualified.

Drama Department

Harlan Grant, Director
Hamilton Benz William Lacey
Florence Grant

The aims of this department are:

1. To cultivate an understanding and appreciation of the whole field of the drama and the theatre, considering the literature, history and practice of these arts in relation to the social and cultural traditions of the western civilization and to contemporary society.
2. To develop the intellectual, emotional and physical resources of the student through the acquisition of poise, self-control, vocal and physical expressiveness.
3. To furnish students interested primarily in this field for either vocational or avocational reasons the opportunity to acquire individual proficiency under competent guidance and group stimulus.

The four-year course of study leading to the degree includes subjects in the following fields of academic studies: English, Foreign Languages, Literature, Social Studies and Science.

A student may elect to major in drama and minor in dance if he so desires (see course outlines elsewhere in catalogue).

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS: (a) Graduation from high school with a minimum of 15 units as prescribed for the degree course (page 12). (b) Evidence by recommendations or audition of applicant's aptitude for work in the drama field.

Credit, two semester hours.

Preparatory Department

The Preparatory Department of the Boston Conservatory of Music is open to both children and adults who are desirous of obtaining thorough musical training in the elementary and intermediate grades. All instruction is given by regular members of the faculty and their assistants. The courses are designed to prepare students to qualify for admission to the degree and certificate courses, and to provide instruction for others who may have only an avocational interest in music and wish to participate in this form of art expression.

Instruction is offered in voice, piano, and all orchestral instruments. Courses in elementary theory, sight-singing, and ear-training are also given, and must be taken by those students who are preparing for admission to the degree courses.

The length of time required for completion of the work necessary for admission to the degree courses cannot be estimated accurately as much depends upon the age, ability and interest of the individual student, as well as the subject and number of lessons taken weekly. An outline of the work required in any particular instrument will be provided upon request.

JUNIOR CERTIFICATE

The Conservatory Junior Certificate will be awarded to students who complete the prescribed work of any applied music course (voice or instrument) in the Preparatory Department and the Junior Theory and Solfege course.

Junior Classes

These classes are for children and young people of junior and high school age. The work includes theory, ear-training and music reading adapted to the abilities and interests of the individual student. The work leads progressively to the preparation of students for admission to the degree and certificate courses. To complete the course the student must have acquired a thorough knowledge of all major and minor scales, key and time signatures, clefs, intervals, common chords and inversions, the dominant seventh chord and its inversion. He should be able to harmonize simple melodies and to modulate to related keys. He should also be able to sing at sight in the G and F clefs studies equivalent in difficulty to those found in Dannhauser, Solfege des Solfeges, Book II, first part, and to take simple rhythmic and melodic dictation in 2/4, 3/4, and 4/4 time.

One or two hours weekly, depending on the age level.

TUITION (payable by semester in advance)

Voice, piano, orchestral instruments	$3 to $5 half-hour
Junior Theory and Solfege	$18 semester
Registration fee	$1

Regulations

All students are required to comply with these regulations and with any further rules that the Conservatory may deem necessary to put into effect.

Each student must consult the official bulletin board regularly and will be held personally responsible for any consequences due to his remissness.

A form of registration must be filled out and properly signed upon entrance by every student of the Conservatory; each student must pay a registration fee.

Students will not be accepted for fewer than ten lessons in private instruction or less than one semester in class instruction.

Private lessons missed, due to unavoidable absence, will be made up providing twenty-four hours' notice of intended absence has been given to the Conservatory office. Failure of regular course students to give proper notice of intended absence will necessitate payment of an additional fee. All lessons that are to be made up must be taken during the current school year.

The number of absences allowed each student in class subjects is as follows:

Classes meeting three times weekly.....4 absences per semester
Classes meeting twice weekly..... 3 absences per semester
Classes meeting once weekly ..... 2 absences per semester

Any additional absences due to illness or other emergency must be substantiated by a medical certificate or other acceptable evidence. A student who arrives at a class ten minutes after the scheduled hour will be considered late. Twice late will count as one absence. Absence from classes immediately prior to or following vacation periods or holidays will be counted as a double absence. Students who fail to comply with this regulation will forfeit credit for the course.

Absence from a scheduled examination will result in failure of the course unless the reason is determined valid. In such case a make-up examination must be taken on or before the next scheduled date in the calendar for make-up examinations in order to establish credit. A charge of $4 is made for each examination.

Any member of the chorus, orchestra, band, opera class or other ensemble groups who fails to participate in a public performance when requested by the instructor in charge must forfeit credit for the course.

Students with a major in applied music are required to do a minimum of three hours daily practice. Students reserving practice accommodations in the Conservatory must adhere to scheduled practice hours, which are subject to change only at the discretion of the office.

All business connected with the school such as the arrangement of lesson appointments, change of day or hours for appointment, payment of tuition, etc., must be attended to directly at the office.

Tuition fees are payable in advance in accordance with the registration agreement. An additional charge is made for late payment. In case of dismissal or withdrawal, refunds will be made in accord with the following schedule when credit balance exceeds $20:

Within two weeks—60%; four weeks—40%; five weeks—20%; after five weeks, no refund.
